

On Wednesday 13th April Reception had some special visitors to show us all about the job of a police officer!

We found out about the objects that police have with them, their uniform and even got to look inside a real police car!